Come with us on a wonderful journey thru the world of the accordion. It's "Time Travel", the Past, Present, and Future even Back to the Future.

During the last 25 years, we followed this fantastic instrument in all its dimensions: historically, culturally, socially, and economically. We bore witness to its ebb and flow in popularity. We were even part of its reinvention in the world of the internet where information and contact with other countries is at our fingertips.

This is our 26th year!
